To whom it may concern:

We, Matthew and Megan Vonada, hold the rights to the photos found at <http://www.mattvonada.com>, and we authorize the holder of those photos to reproduce them as they wish. Seriously, if they want to blow these pictures up to the size of a barn wall, we're letting them do that. Why? Because we're incredibly nice people. That's why.

If there remain any questions, the holder of these photos should have one of our telephone numbers. Feel free to call to resolve any issues.
